REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

To the Citizens of Mason :

Another year has passed, and it becomes the duty of your servants to give an account of their labors in behalf of the schools. We have reason to be truly thankful to our Heavenly Father for all the mercies received the past year. There have been no epidemics to interfere with our schools. Good health has prevailed among scholars and teachers, and we trust that the money expended has resulted in a good degree beneficially to the intellectual culture of the pupils. As a rule, we have been able to secure teachers well adapted to teach in the several schools, four of them being residents of this town. Some of the last terms at School No. 5 had seemed to accomplish but little, so we deemed it expedient to bring the scholars to No. 1 School, for the past two terms, and the evidence is conclusive that no mistake was made in so doing.

Stickney's Readers were introduced into the schools the past year and have proved satisfactory thus far. The grammars now in use ought soon to be numbered with the things of the past, and a change is contemplated. A large portion of our arithmetics are without answers to the problems, which to us seems a disadvantage to the scholars and ought, in some way, to be remedied.

We are well pleased that so much interest has been manifested by parents and others in the welfare of our schools, and trust that the same may be continued and increased. We forcibly feel the responsibility of our official obligations in conducting the educational interests of our children and regret that our labors have not been more abundant, but are constrained to say that we have acted with an honest purpose in performing the duties committed to us. As our schools are not all closed it is impossible to present the full roll of honor, so we think best to leave it entirely out of our report.

Trusting this report will be received with the kindly spirit in which it is given, and that with united effort the progress of education may be more rapid and complete in the future, with pleasure we affix our names as

Yours most respectfully,

L. W. MITCHELL,
C. B. GOODWIN,
